OBSERVATIONS

The company was originally known as Reeves Moses Hudig Mortgage Brokers Limited.

The company was a mortgage broker and sourced investors for various contributory mortgages. A Trustee Company held the mortgages on Trust for the contributories.

The company was sold to Steven Hart of Australia and on 3 November 2000 it changed its name.

On 31 October 2001 the company was purchased by Dorchester Funds Management Limited.

Dorchester did not promote the company as a mortgage broker and they did not sell any contributory mortgages. Dorchester managed the book and repaid the investors as the term of each mortgage ended.

During this wind out phase Dorchester became aware that there were a considerable number of bad loans and that some contributors were not fully covered by their securities. Dorchester did everything possible to ensure that the contributories suffered the minimal loss on their investment. Dorchester advanced significant funds to Harts Contributory Mortgages Limited to enable disbursements to be met to maximise mortgage recoveries.

On 30 July 2002 the Securities Commission made an order under section 44B(2)(c) of the Securities Act 1978 that Harts Contributory Mortgages Limited shall forthwith cease to act as contributory mortgage broker in respect of all contributory mortgages which have previously been allotted by it and that Crichton Horne & Associates Mortgage Brokers Limited be appointed as contributory mortgage broker in its place with respect to those contributory mortgages.

The company was placed in liquidation as a result of unpaid income taxes for the years ending 31 March 1999, 2002 and 2001. The latter two years are based on default assessments.
