OBSERVATIONS

The company operated the Hunters Inn Hotel, offering the services of a bar, dining room (leased out four years ago), accommodation and a bottle store (sub-leased 8 months ago).

In Mr Elgin's opinion, the company failed because two years ago a dispute occurred with the closing times of the Hotel's public bar. The licence stated that closing time was 1am, and not 3am. In Mr Elgin's opinion the crowds went away and profit dropped. The company could not service the high level of debt and it struggled to service.

In early March 2001, a Sale & Purchase Agreement for the whole site had been entered into for $3.9 million. This agreement failed to settle.

All company records are currently in the hands of the receivers, Brendan Gibson and Michael Stiasny from Ferrier Hodgson, who were appointed on 14th September 2001 by BNZ Finance Limited.
