I have followed up all outstanding issues and report as follows:

1. I have received and reviewed the company records and conclude that there are no voidable transactions within the two year specified period.

3. In addition as at 31 August 2000 Mr. Rapana's shareholder's current account had a debit balance of $22,891.57
4. Mr. Rapana has no means by which to make any reparations and any action against the Director would not be economically viable.
