OBSERVATIONS

The company was a commercial painting contractor.

During 1999 / 2000 the company completed several major contracts with Bishop Homes Limited, First Investments Limited and Wiselass Developments Limited. These three companies were subsequently placed in liquidation. The combined debt owed to Redsons Painting Limited was $141,000.

The company could not recover from this position and in June 2000 all significant work ceased.

The Director did undertake a variety of small jobs during the period October 2000 to January 2001, however there was insufficient profit to reward the effort.

After taking professional advice, the director decided to place the company into liquidation.
