OBSERVATIONS

The company manufactured and sold CNG fuelling stations, the equivalent of a petrol pump.

The business was sold in 1990/91 to an American company but the director could not remember the name. The arrangement was that they took the company over for nothing on the understanding that they would pay the creditors from the assets and the trading. A year later the director learned that the assets had been sold, no creditors had been paid and the American company was in Chapter 11. Geoffrey Beesley then paid off all the creditors personally. The director advised that he paid off the IRD's core debt and ignored the interest and penalties.

The debt claimed is over 10 years old and the company has not traded for that long. About 14 months ago he paid $10,000 to the IRD "in full and final" settlement of the company's tax debts. The IRD took his money and then proceeded to liquidate the company.

The company received $4,691.00 from David Gordon Limited on the 28th May 2001. This money was then paid out again on the same day. I have assumed that it is a payment to the debentureholder.

The director of the company currently resides in Australia.

Consequently, a meeting of creditors will not be held unless within 14 days after receiving this notice a creditor gives notice in writing to the Liquidator requiring a meeting to be called.

LIQUIDATION COMMITTEE

At any time during the liquidation, any creditor may in writing request the Liquidator to call a meeting of creditors to consider whether a Liquidation Committee should be appointed, and if so, to choose the members of the committee.

A Liquidation Committee has certain powers set out in s315 of the Companies Act 1993, including to assist the Liquidator as appropriate in the conduct of the liquidation.
